

NOTICE OF ELECTION FOR
RATES AND TERMS FOR SMALL WEBCASTERS
2012 LICENSE PERIOD

I. ELECTION

The Licensee identified below hereby elects and declares that it is eligible for the rates and terms of the statutory licenses for the making of ephemeral phonorecords and digital audio transmissions of sound recordings¹ by Eligible Small Webcasters² set forth in the Federal Register at 74 Fed. Reg. 9293, 9302 (Mar. 3, 2009) (the “Eligible Small Webcaster Rates and Terms”) and authorized pursuant to the Webcaster Settlement Act of 2008 (codified at 17 U.S.C. § 114(f)(5)). This election is for the period commencing on January 1, 2012, or the date of the Licensee’s first digital audio transmission of a sound recording under the statutory licenses after such date, and ending on December 31, 2012.

This election is for any eligible digital transmissions and ephemeral recordings on stations and channels owned and/or operated by the Licensee. (In order to elect the rates and terms applicable to “Microcasters” (as defined in 74 Fed. Reg. 9293, 9306 (Mar. 3, 2009)), the Licensee must complete and submit the separate Notice of Election for Microcasters instead of the Notice of Election for Small Webcasters.)

The Licensee acknowledges that this election to pay royalties in accordance with the Eligible Small Webcaster Rates and Terms is in lieu of any different rates and terms that may be available to such Licensee. Upon filing of this Notice of Election, and for so long as the service qualifies for the Eligible Small Webcaster Rates and Terms, the Licensee acknowledges and agrees that it cannot opt out of these Rates and Terms or otherwise elect different rates and terms during the period for which this election is made.

The Licensee hereby states that its and its Affiliates’ Gross Revenues, plus Third Party Participation Revenues and revenues from the operation of a new subscription service, have not exceeded $1,250,000 in 2011, and that the service expects to be an Eligible Small Webcaster during the applicable period covered by this election³. The Licensee further acknowledges that the filing of this Notice of Election does not guarantee the Licensee the right to pay statutory royalties under the Eligible Small Webcaster Rates and Terms if and when the service no longer qualifies as an eligible small webcaster.

The deadline to submit this Notice of Election is January 31, 2012. For an Eligible Small Webcaster that has not made digital audio transmissions under the statutory license prior to January 31, 2012, the deadline is 45 days after the end of the month in which the Eligible Small Webcaster began making digital audio transmissions under the statutory license.

Licenseses must comply with all requirements of the statutory licenses under Sections 112(e) and 114 of the Copyright Act, including all requirements set forth in the applicable rates and terms adopted pursuant to those statutory licenses. SoundExchange is not in a position to determine whether each of the many services that rely on these statutory licenses is eligible for statutory licensing and does not in fact make any such determination. Nor does SoundExchange verify that such Licensees are in full compliance with all applicable requirements of the two statutory licenses. Accordingly, SoundExchange's acceptance of a Notice of Election, Statement of Account, Report of Use, payment, or anything else provided by a Licensee does not express or imply any acknowledgment that a Licensee is in compliance with the requirements of the statutory licenses or otherwise eligible to rely on the statutory licenses. SoundExchange, its members and other copyright owners reserve all their rights to take enforcement action against a Licensee that is not in compliance with those requirements or is otherwise ineligible for the statutory license.
